LISBON, May 12.

TWO Men of War are fitting out here with warlike Stores and Troops on board, to ſail forthwith for reinforcing our Garriſons in Braſil.

Leghorn, May 21. We are informed by the Maſter of a Ship juſt arriv'd in this Port from the Coaſt of Sicily, that two Neapolitan Men of War, cruizing off Cape Paſſaro, have fallen in with, and taken a large Corſair of 36 Guns, and 300 Men, after an obſtinate Engagement; which Corſair prov'd afterwards to be a Man of War the Algerines took laſt Year from the Venetians.

Madrid, May 22. The Drought is ſo great in this Kingdom, as to occaſion a general Scarcity, not only of all Kinds of Grain, but Butcher's Meat. This City has been without Bread theſe two Days, by the Bakers refuſing to make any unleſs they are permitted to raiſe the Price. The King holds To-day an extraordinary Council, in order to conſider of all poſſible Means to alleviate this dreadful Calamity, and relieve the Diſtreſs of the Public.

Moſcow, May 22. About a Fortnight ago ſeveral Quarters of this City took Fire at once, but the Damage done then was but inconſiderable: After which we had a Fire at the General Hoſpital, whereby the Stables and Ice-Houſes belonging to it were conſumed. The 14th Inſtant 200 Houſes were burnt down in the Quarter of Pereſlawſke-Jemſkoi, and ſeveral Perſons periſhed in the Flames. The next Day and the 16th two Villages, ſituated in the Neighbourhood of Iſmailow, one of the Empreſs's Country Seats, were deſtroyed by Fire.

The 18th we were alarmed by another Conflagration which began at the Houſe of a Ruſſian Merchant, and ſpread from thence to the Quarters of Bolcſchaia, Great and Little Malava, Alexeiſka, Schiwa, Gorka, and Naragoſchkach: The Empreſs went about, as ſhe had done before at the Fire of the 14th, giving Orders, and encouraging the People and the Soldiers to extinguiſh the Flames; but in ſpight of all their Efforts, about 800 Houſes were reduced to Aſhes, with ſeveral Churches and many Warehouſes, and Shops where they ſold Corn, Meal, and other Proviſions. The 20th a Fire happen'd in one of the Suburbs near Meſchanka Quarter, and conſumed thirty Houſes; and Yeſterday

Yesterday in the Afternoon we had a fresh Alarm from a Cook's Shop in one of the Markets; but the Fire was happily master'd before it had done much Damage.

Several Persons have been taken up, on strong Suspicion of their being Incendiaries, with a View to plunder the Inhabitants in the midst of the general Confusion attending such Accidents. The Guards have been reinforced in all the Quarters of the City, and every House keeper is ordered to keep constantly a certain Quantity of Water, by way of Precaution against Fire.

Lisbon, May 24. Capt. William Kinsay, whom the Court sent to Africa with an Engineer and proper Materials, in order to erect a Fort in the Island of Bissau, returned the 6th Instant, without being able to execute the Orders given him. When he set about the Work, the Inhabitants of the Country came down upon our Men and forced them to retire with the Loss of our Engineer, a Captain, and thirty two Soldiers. The Governor of Cachieu demands a Re inforcement of 800 Men, in order to attempt again the Execution of this Project.

Leghorn, May 28. Vast Quantities of Corn are contracted for here, in order to be sent to Spain, for supplying the present Necessities of the Subjects of that Kingdom, who for several Months have suffered severely by the dry Season, and, according to all Report, their next Harvest was like to prove but indifferent.

Naples, May 29. A small Genoese Man of War has brought into the Port of Bays a Barbary Corsair, which she took at a little Distance from that Port, after having sunk another.

Dresden, June 3. A Camp of 22000 Men is actually formed in our Neighbourhood, which draws a prodigious Concourse of Strangers from the Neighbouring States.

Warsaw, June 13. The Cham of the Crim Tarters has assembled in the Vicinity of Pericop, an Army of 120,000 Men; and is said to have answer'd a Turkish Chiaux, who demanded the Intention of that Armament, that as the Porte had abandoned their Defence, they had assembled to defend themselves.

Paris, June 16. We have Advice, that on the 5th Instant, at three in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out at a House in Soligni, a Town in the Province of Perche; and the Wind being then very high, all the Houses exposed to it were in a blaze in less than Half an Hour; and by five o'Clock every House in the Town, except the Church, and two or three Cottages, were burnt down to the Ground. The Flames spread so rapidly from the very beginning of this fatal Accident, that it was impossible for the Inhabitants to save any Thing: Goods, Cattle, Provisions, Papers, Deeds, all have been consumed; and the only Difference between the Rich and the Poor of that Place appears in the Cloaths on their Backs.

Breslau, June 20. Last Sunday the Lightning set Fire to a House in the Suburb of Canty, near this City, and entirely consumed it, together with four Barns, in which were some Women and Children, who were burnt to Death.

Franckfort, June 25. The Eagerness of the Germans to transplant themselves to Nova Scotia is much abated; some who seemed inclined to go even chusing rather to enlist for Soldiers. This Change is partly owing to the Prohibitions issued against their leaving Germany, and partly to the Misrepresentations which have been industriously spread of that happy Country.

Amsterdam, June 29. According to our Letters from London, the Emperor of Morocco insists on new Presents from the English Minister at Tetuan. He demands a certain Quantity of Artillery and warlike Stores; besides some Jewels, superfine Cloths, and other valuable Stuffs or Ornaments. The first Article the English Ministry, these Letters assure, will never comply with, and the granting of the other is very doubtful. The English perceive the Advantage of stationing two 20 Gun Ships on the Barbary Coast; the African Corsairs have since given much less Interruption to the Navigation of British Vessels, which formerly they often stopt on frivilous Pretexts; for Treaties are not a sufficient Security against the Piracies of those Infidels, if the Infringement of them is not properly guarded against.

LONDON.

June 4. Yesterday four Scotch and two Irishmen, who were concerned in the late Rebellion, were brought to Town guarded by a Party of Soldiers. It is reported that one of the Scotchmen is Brother to Dr. Cameron.

June 9. The last Letters from the Ukraine bring Advice, that the Russian Troops and the Tartars are actually so near each other, that it is expected some Skirmish must soon happen.

June 12. There is Advice by Yesterday's Mail, that the Algerines have taken a Malteze Vessel of twelve Guns. She was attacked off the Island of Rhodes by three Algerine Pyrates, and defended herself six Hours; but the Captain having lost his Arm, and the Crew being reduced during the Engagement, from 49 to 17, the Infidels boarded her. The Dey was so delighted with the Prize, that he distributed 1000 Piasters among the Captains, and gave 150 Sequins to the Turk who first jumped on board the Christian Vessel.

June 14. A Man of War is ordered to be manned and victualled to carry Sir Danvers Osborne to his Government at New York. On his Arrival there the Hon. George Clinton, Esq; many Years Governor thereof, will embark for England.

The dreadful Storm, that happened last Saturday Se'nnight, was most violent about Bridgwater, but through its whole Course has done inconceivable Mischief, destroying the Corn, Fruits, &c. Several of the Hail Stones measured Eight Inches, and some weighed a Quarter of a Pound. The repairing the Windows only in the Town of Bridgwater, will cost upwards of 500l.

By a Letter from Skipton in Craven, Yorkshire, we learn, that on Friday Evening the 8th Instant, about Half an Hour past Eleven, there was felt all over that Town and Neighbourhood, a very considerable Shock of an Earthquake. Its Duration, by those who were up, (as many were, it being the Eve of the Fair) was judged to be about three Seconds of Time; its Effects upon those who were up in the Houses, were like the sudden and violent passing of Wheel Carriages through the Streets, which made every Thing shake in the Houses, and the Floors to heave; and even the Moveables, Deal Planks, &c. to be thrown down: Those in Bed felt their Beds heave and vibrate very quick, and the Walls and Windows rattle, as if shook to Pieces: Those out in the Streets very sensibly felt the Earth heave and shake, which was succeeded by a rushing Noise and Explosion, like that of Gunpowder fired in the open Air. It was very calm, a red Sky, intermix'd with black Clouds.

We hear that Hostilities are still carrying on in the East Indies by the French, against our Settlements on the Coast of Coromandel, and that an Action has lately been between them, but the French were defeated.

June 19. Upwards of fifty Persons are arrived at Rochelle from Scotland, supposed to be such as were involved in the late Rebellion, and are afraid of being called to an Account for it.

We hear that the East India Company design to fit out eighteen Ships more for their Settlements in the East Indies.

June 23. The Adventurer, Melvin, from Campvere for Maryland, foundered off the Island of Flores the 11th of May last; the People were taken up by a Brig and carried into Fyal, from whence they got a Passage to London.

July 3. It appears by Letters received at Naples from Algiers, Tunis and Tripoly, that those States are fitting out a great Number of Corsairs to cruize upon the Christians.

July 7. Letters from Whitehaven in Cumberland mention that on Wednesday the 20th of June, in the Night, a tumultuous Rabble arose, to the Amount of four or five hundred People, and destroyed the Turnpike at Calder Bridge, which they had done twice before within these two Years, threatening the Lives, and to burn the Houses, of some of the Neighbouring Gentlemen.

We hear that on Monday se'nnight in the Morning a Message was sent to Edwin Lascelles, Esq; by a Party of the Rioters concerned in cutting down the Turnpikes in the West-Riding of Yorkshire, signifying that they intended to demolish a Gate at Harwood-Bridge and pull down his House: That accordingly in the Afternoon about 300, some armed with Swords and some with Clubs, made their Appearance in that Neighbourhood. But Mr. Lascelles arming about eighty of his Tenants and Workmen, resolved to defend the Bar and marched himself on Foot at the Head of them, attended by Mr. Arthington and several other Gentlemen, to meet the Rioters. After some skirmishing, in which several were desperately wounded on both Sides, he came up with their whole Body, and took about thirty Prisoners, of whom ten were committed to the Castle the next Day.

By another Account from Leeds, the Dragoons which were sent from York to assist in suppressing the Rioters were divided into Parties to attend on the several Turnpikes round about that Town in Support of the Collectors: And on Saturday last a Carter going through Beeston Turnpike refused to pay the Toll, whereupon he was seized by the Soldiers, in order to be carried before the Trustees of the Turnpike, at the King's Arms Inn in Briggate, but was rescued before he got thither. After this the Mob gave out, that before Ten that Night they would pull down the Guard-house, and rescue three Prisoners who had been apprehended the Night before, and were then confined there on Account of being concerned in cutting down a Turnpike: Accordingly, between Seven and Eight, a Body of about 500 Men assembled in Briggate, when, by Order of the Justices, the Proclamation against Rioters was read, and they were required to disperse: But this not being regarded a Message was sent about to desire all Persons to shut up their Shops and keep in their Houses; after which the Officers sent their own Servants with the like Caution, but the Mob continuing to break the Windows and Shutters of the King's Arms Inn, and tearing up the Stones of the Pavement to throw at the Soldiers, and even knocked down the Centinel upon Guard there, the Drum beat to Arms, and the Justices gave Orders to the Soldiers, in Number about twenty to fire, which was done with Powder only, but this not intimidating the Mob, the Soldiers fired with Ball. According to the Return made by the Constables on Sunday Morning, eight were killed, and about fifty wounded, some of which are since dead of their Wounds. All proper Care was taken of the wounded Persons, and the Gentlemen of the Military behaved with all the Temper and Prudence that could possibly be expected in such a Scene of Confusion.

Dublin, May 29. The Importation of Potatoes from England is almost incredible. Few Ships arrive from thence, that do not bring them as well as Corn and Flour; and all their Sea Biscuit. The Tillage and Husbandry of England have made her the most populous, rich and thriving Kingdom in Europe; and the Neglect of them in Ireland, hath made this Country the worst inhabited, and poorest Nation that has the Advantages of so many fine Sea Ports, a rich Soil, and temperate Climate. Even Honey and Bees-Wax are imported from Russia, Poland, Sweden, Denmark, Germany and France; and, if Provisions do not fail in their Prices, it is not doubted, but we shall soon have horned Cattle, Sheep and Butter imported hither, to the great Honour of Ireland, who feedeth her Enemies and starveth her Natives.

Upon Account of the exorbitant high Prices of Provisions, for Life, and the extravagant Rents that are now paid for House Rent in Dublin, by which it is almost impossible for trading People in good Credit, or those of moderate Fortunes or Salaries, to live, above thirty Families of Credit are now preparing to go and settle in America, whose Wealth, Industry and Arts being carried with them, may be a great Prejudice to the Nation.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sixty Vessels arrived in this Harbour with Wheat, Flour, Malt, and Potatoes, and Yesterday many more arrived.

We hear from Belturbet that the Review of the Dragoons which were there last Week, occasioned Provisions to raise to such an enormous Price, by the Numbers of People that came to see it, that there was nothing to be had for Money; a Number of People in Conjunction with a Troop of the Dragoons, attempting to break open a Warehouse of Flour, &c. five of the Dragoons were shot dead by the People within.

NEW-YORK, September 17.

On Saturday Evening last arrived here the Sloop Mary and Catherine, Capt. Jones, in about eight and thirty Days from the Bay of Honduras; by whom we learn, that about 12 Days before he sailed, two large Sloops of ten Carriage Guns and 50 Men each, were fitted out by the English Traders then in the Bay, and dispatched to attack a Brig they saw at Anchor under Key Bokell, supposed to be a Spaniard: That soon after they sailed, observing a Brig standing in towards the Bay, they gave her Chase, but she proving to be the King George, Capt. Dunscomb, of this Port, they tack'd and stood for the other that was at Anchor, who by this Time had got under Way, making directly for the two Sloops: That off the North West End of Turneff they came to an Engagement, which lasted for several Hours almost board and board, when the Spaniard, finding the Englishmen too strong for him, and himself to have received considerable Damage, as both their Pumps were observed to be continually going, and a great Number of their dead Men throwing overboard, thought proper to sheer off: They chac'd her for several Hours, when, by the Help of the Night coming on, and one of the Sloops being an indifferent Sailer, she got clear off: She was a Vessel of 14 large Carriage Guns, and upwards of 20 Swivels, was full of Men, and Consort to the Brig lately mentioned to be taken in the Bay by the Traders.

We further learn by Capt. Jones, that the Renegadoes in the New River, are still very troublesome blesome; and that the Englishmen dare not send their small Craft up, without a large One properly equipped for their Protection.

We have Advice from Kingston in Jamaica, by Capt. Carlisle, who arrived here Yesterday from that Island, That the Sloop Fortune, Michael Hinds, Master, of that Place, sailed from thence the fourth of May last, bound for Coracoa, and on the 14th having sprung a Leak, they were obliged to put into Tiberoon Bay to refit, but being informed by the Master of a French Sloop, that there was no proper Officer there, persuaded him to go for St. Louis. Accordingly the 19th of May he weigh'd Anchor for that Purpose, and at about eight Leagues Distance was overtaken by a French Guarda Costa, who took him and carried him into Porto Prince, where the Vessel and Cargo were condemned, with twenty Slaves, and sold at the King's Audience, as a lawful Prize, for anchoring in their Harbour, and seeking Relief in the greatest Distress.
